<Description for Tuesday's Class>

Tuesday (7th November)

Scenario: Campus fashion show for university students

You are hired as a designer in a start-up clothing company and your target customers are university students. So, you should hold a fashion show to advertise your company in the campus. Show your brand, runway stage, and modeling clothes. Successful show will guarantee you high salary and promotion.

1. Warm up & Simple Activity (Coming up with the words describing clothes) – 10 minutes [Individual & Whole Class Work]

- 1) Each student gets the sticky label paper, on which they can write down words that describe the clothes someone is wearing.
- 2) Each student gets a sheet with 30 words such as shiny(adjective) and sweater(noun) and 10 blank labels. Thus, they can make some of the words themselves, which can apply to the situation in the class.
- 3) After writing down ten words in the label, they can stick each label on the person who is applied to the word.

2. Describing the fashion & Guessing game – 15 minutes [Group Work]

- 1) Each group choose one person in the assigned group and describe the fashion of that person. (A teacher will divide the class into two parts. Since we have 5 groups, two groups will be one team, and the other three groups will work together.)
- 2) The rest of team members guess who belongs to that fashion description.

3. Revise bad descriptive writings – 10 minutes [Individual & Group Work]

- 1) T gives each group two bad descriptive writing samples with fashion pictures.
- 2) The writing samples have some wrong descriptions about the fashion in the pictures.
- 3) One student starts finding one odd description and revise it. Then pass the worksheet to the next person in the same group.
- 4) They pass out the worksheet until they have the perfect description of the fashion in the picture.

4. Describe a fashion show – 15minutes [Group Work]

- 1) T shows a fashion show on YouTube.
- 2) Ss brainstorm about the fashion trends in the show. This fashion trend will be the thesis statement for their descriptive essay about fashion show.
- 3) Ss in a group capture the fashion features of Brand logo, runway stage, and 2 modeling clothes in the show and write those in the graphic organizer. These features will be the topic sentences for their descriptive essay about fashion show.
- 4) Then Ss make an outline for their descriptive essay writing.

5. Peer revision - 10 minutes [Group Work]

- 1) Each group passes their fashion show outlines in a clockwise direction.
- 2) Each group evaluates the outline of other group based on a peer review sheet and give them back.
- 3) Each group revises their own fashion show review based on the evaluation from other group.

6. Plan a new fashion show – 25 minutes [Group Work]

- 1) T introduces some university style fashions (fashion of engineering college, exam week fashion, hip-hop fashion, hiking fashion, model student fashion, fashionista etc.)
- 2) Ss brainstorm about a university style fashion show. (for thesis statement)
- 3) Then Ss think of their brand logo, runway stage, and 2~3 modeling clothes for their show and write those in the graphic organizer. (for topic sentences)
- 4) Ss make an outline for the descriptive essay for their fashion show.
